

Top Five Wedding Must Do's

I love to see brides running about the town trying to plan their wedding. It puts a smile on my face. I knew this bride who was absolutely exact on every detail of her wedding. I remember thinking "Calm down, its just a Wedding." But, when the Wedding day came, I couldn't believe my eyes. It was perfect and just absolutely beautiful!

I'll share with you some of my favorite things at her Wedding.

First, there was this absolutely stunning Ice Sculpture that was shaped in the form of her and her new grooms initials. It was very cool! But this wasn't just any ice sculpture. This sculpture had apple juice running in through the middle of their names and pouring out the sides into an ice bowl and that's where people scooped out their drink. I was so impressed! So remember, the décor at your Wedding and at your Reception are a really big deal. Decorations really set the tone and atmosphere of the whole Wedding evening and you want to make sure that it is the correct mood that you wanted created there that evening.

Second, another cool thing she had at her wedding was a live string quartet orchestra. It was beautiful and what a difference a live orchestra made than having strings playing on the cassette player. It made more people feel like dancing with their loved ones, which really made the evening a lot more fun. Choice of entertainment is very important as well. Make sure that you choose carefully the type of entertainment and music you want at your Wedding. It will, like the decorations, set a mood and feeling within the Wedding Day and Reception time.

Third, I noticed something that was very different, colors everywhere. This bride decided to not pick just 3 or 4 colors for her Wedding, but instead, decided to use all the colors of the rainbow. It was the most amazing sight. Everything was cheerful looking and so bright and colorful. Choosing colors is so important. As said before, certain colors create certain moods and so make sure you choose color that can create the type of setting you want at your Wedding and Reception.

Forth, the food was amazing. Not only was the look of the food fabulous, but also the taste was to die for. It's been over 3 years since that Wedding and I still remember how amazing the food was. Guest remembers the food. Good food equals a good party so don't forget that. At her wedding the strawberries all were dressed in Tuxedos made from dark and white chocolate, which was pretty original, and everyone was talking about it. Swedish meatballs were heating over an open fire and the smell was so yummy! So remember, food is a huge part of the Wedding Day and the Reception, so choose wisely and make sure you hire someone or a company that your really trust.

Fifth, and sometimes seems most important is the bridal dress. Take time and enjoy this process. My friend took 4 months to find he dress. But it was such a fun experience for her and she was thrilled with the outcome. She found exactly what she wanted.

So enjoy this time of life as you plan your Wedding. You'll be happy you took the time to create and unforgettable experience.
