

PGA Championship's Best Golfers

PGA Championship is a golf tournament conducted once a year by the Professional Golfers Association of America which is considered to be a part of the PGA Tour. Many professional golfers have been noted by the PGA and been recognized to be the best golfers in PGA championship history.

Listed below are the best golfers in PGA championship in the history.

Jack Nicklaus

Jack Nicklaus won five titles in the PGA Championship. He won five titles in the years 1960-1980s. Other than that, he was gained the four runner-up places in the same years as well. During that time, Jack Nicklaus set the confirmation for principal margin of victories in seven strokes. Jack Nicklaus is considered to be the supreme golfer in the PGA Championship.

Gene Sarazen

Gene Sarazen is a professional winner of the Grand Slam. "The Squire" disintegrates against the golf outlook in the year 1922, captivating both the PGA Championship and the US Open during his 20s. He also won in PGA championship in the years 1923 and 1933. Gene Sarazen also completed all the way to the championship game in the year 1930, where he won against Tommy Armour.

Walter Hagen

Among the best player in PGA Championship is no other than Walter Hagen. Hagen won five shared records and four individual records consecutively. Hagen's very first PGA Championship was in the year 1921 when he beat t Jim Barnes in the PGA finals. Gene Sarazen won subsequently the two PGA titles and also later Hagen defeated Barnes again in 1924. Walter Hagen also won another three PGA Championships.

Sam Snead

Sam Snead won three PGA Championship titles. He first joined the PGA Championship in the year 1937 and later won in 1942. Snead was 69 years old when he did not play his last PGA match until the year 1981.

Sam Snead was defeated in two-match plays in the 1938 and 1940 PGA finals but then gained a victory in the year 1942. Sam Snead also successful to gain the two titles in PGA finals during the year of 1949 and 1951 and considered to be very spirited in the stroke-play period too. Actually, from the year 1958 Snead placed on the eight PGA Top 10 finishes. Three among the eight PGA top 10 happened in the following years in the 1970s.

Gary Player

Gary Player also won two PGA Championship titles. Gary Player is considered to be one of the best players in the PGA Championship because of his ultimate long history in the golf game tournament and his consistency as a golfer throughout the years. Gary Player also won in the PGA Championship twice and gained 8 Top 10s finishes, 6 Top 5s, and 5 Top 3 finishes.

In the present time, the PGA Championship continues to take hold of the best golfers around the golf. In fact, this has been held at a huge number of settings but presently it is typically staged among the small group of distinguished golf courses, in which all of it has hosted a few other principal tournaments.

About the Author

Golf Course directory owner, John Gregory is a golf fanatic and a web fiend. Combining is two pleasures, he helps people learn about golf and find the best Golf Courses at cheap rate across America. Both in real life and on the web, John likes to create the best golf experience as possible by providing quality content and helpfull tips on the fairway.

Source: www.isnare.com

Source: <http://articles.exospy.com>