

The Top Barbados Luxury Hotel

This is the very best Barbados Luxury Hotel for an unforgettable Honeymoon Vacation

The very best Barbados Luxury Hotel has to be Sandy Lane Barbados for a huge variety of reasons. It is the epitome of all that is best when it comes to pampering guests. It is one place where you can guarantee real elegance and total comfort.

Luxury on this scale and elegance does not come cheap, but if you have deep pockets or you just want a dream honeymoon vacation, and are prepared to pay then Sandy Lane will give you the honeymoon of your dreams. You can get special packages for your honeymoon which would be in a luxury ocean room plus a load of other extras free which you would normally pay for.

The rooms at Sandy Lane Barbados are huge, averaging 900 Square Feet, and all have wonderful views of the Caribbean. As you would expect they are luxuriously furnished, with wide screen plasma TV, DVD and CD Players. The bathrooms are pretty spectacular with multi spray showers.

If you are a foodie then Sandy Lane Barbados is for you. There are four restaurants and five bars, with cuisine from a wide range of options. There is Bajan, with speciality island seafood, and then in L'Acajou you will be treated to French food and wines outside by the Caribbean.

Sandy Lane Barbados could be just the most unbelievable romantic wedding destination with private suites, and banquet rooms for a reception. The ambience here should give the couple the best day of their lives.

For your stay at this most luxurious of the Barbados Luxury Hotel range, there is a huge range of activities laid on by Sandy Lane. You can choose to swim at the fine bit of beach outside the hotel, or in the pool. If you are feeling energetic then there is tennis, or of course for the ladies there is a visit to the Spa.

If you are feeling energetic then there are plenty of watersports to choose from, and to help, all the attendants are qualified instructors. You can sail, or perhaps it is the land sport of golf which attracts you. The old nine hole course is still here, plus the 18 hole Country Club Course and a Green Monkey course as well.

Whether you want to be a lazy guest summoning the willing staff to attend to your every need, or active, then Sandy Lane Barbados has it all for you.

The big question really is, are you up for this Barbados Luxury Hotel, or will Sandy Lane Barbados be too much. A lot depends on your wallet, and quite honestly you will need thousands of dollars to spend for just one week.

Over twenty years ago one night there to fulfil a dream cost more than the previous thirteen nights put together at a very nice Caribbean Inn on Bequia. Was it worth it, then the answer is definitely yes. If finance permitted is this a possible destination in the future, and the answer again is very positive. Sandy Lane Barbados is that kind of place. Good for kids, great for adults and exclusive beyond words.
