

A Bahamas Private Island Vacation to Dream About

An almost unbelievable Private Island Vacation in the Exumas to dream about if you have a bottomless pocket, called Musha Cay, but you need to take a look anyway to keep your dreams alive.

A Private island vacation in the Exumas in the Bahamas will have to remain a dream vacation for almost all of us, but there is a private island for rent if you can afford it, and it is called Musha Cay. It is the ultimate luxurious barefoot dream island vacation covering more than 150 acres of absolutely unspoiled tropical paradise.

Here on Musha Cay you will find deserted sugar white pristine beaches, and sea the colour of turquoise that even the best photographs can't do justice to, and in addition it so clear and clean. Musha Cay Resort can accommodate up to 24 guests and there are over thirty staff to pander to your every whim. The private island that is Musha Cay is available to only you and your party so your experience will be totally private. The island can only be booked in total so there is only ever one part there at a time.

The choice of accommodation is firstly your own ten thousand square feet Manor House on a small hill with sweeping views, or a thatched roof beach house which is even more private than the privacy of the island tucked away out of sight and sound. There are also two guest villas with two bedrooms, or a five bedroom beachfront villa. All of the properties are quite beautifully designed and laid out very much in an English Colonial style.

Musha Cay not without reason is said to be the world's most luxurious private island resort, and is the ultimate place to stay in terms of being totally spoiled and also in a completely private environment. In fact the owners have deliberately kept the three surrounding islands uninhabited to ensure the privacy of the guests.

Apart from the things you would expect like a championship floodlit tennis court, and a beachfront state of the art fitness gymnasium, a beachfront freshwater pool, plus beach bar, which is set against this beautiful backdrop of white sand, turquoise sea, and blue sky, there is any number of activities to occupy your time.

Imagine cutting through this beautiful water whilst exploring in a speedboat, riding a jet-ski, or leisurely sailing in a catamaran or a sailboat. For the more energetic there is of course windsurfing, and should you fancy a bit of snorkelling or even diving then the local coral reef it totally unspoilt.

Imagine Musha Cay as the ultimate romantic wedding destination, for yourself and your partner plus 22 hand picked friends you love dearly. The very professional and courteous and very efficient staff will ensure your great day is an unparalleled success, and what an incredible place to tie the knot. This could be the only place where you have a great wedding followed by a honeymoon with all the guests still present. You can do that on Musha Cay because of the total privacy in the thatched beach house for the honeymoon part, and the Manor House for your pre wedding festivities.

The cuisine, is something to wonder over in total awe, basically you can have what you want when you want, and wherever you want, and to ensure perfection send your food requirements to Musha Cay before you go. The drink is the same routine, whatever you want wherever you want. This really is the most exclusive, simply the best private island vacation anywhere in the world, and for exclusive use for one week – a paltry $3,02,050 a week!

About the Author

Jason Law writes about Bahamas Vacation Spots, as well as authoring several articles about Worldwide Vacation Spots and he recommends Caribbean Vacation Spots although The Bahamas is his favourite place on Earth

Source: www.isnare.com

Source: <http://articles.exospy.com>