

Inexpensive Wedding Favors Ideas For Your Guests

It is expected that a traditional wedding follows customary practice of giving out wedding favors and keepsakes to all the guests. Most couples do this to thank and to show their deep gratitude to all the people who have invested their time sharing the most memorable moment of their lives. Generally, favors and keepsakes are in a form of gifts. There are different varieties of selection these items have, from simple to elegant. Such items are widely available in most local specialty stores and online stores. Their prices vary depending on their features, designs and materials. A perfect choice of wedding favors can make a great difference to the overall appeal of the wedding ceremony, as well as can give great impression to all the guests.

Wedding Place Card Holders and Picture Frames

These items are one of the most popular wedding keepsakes to give. A wonderful gift and memento to be cherished and remembered by each of your guest, where attached to it is a nicely picked photo of the newly wedded couple. There are items that include cool features and wonderful add ons to further enhance and complete each table's centerpiece. Such items are Photo Glass Coaster Favors that are simply elegant, practical and very functional. The packaging of these items is great, not to mention an adorable personalized touch of the wedded couple. Or, let them bring some of your memorable snapshots in a Photo Frame and Place Card Holder. And these can all be made personal.

Wedding Scented Candles

Everybody loves candles! This is a very common keepsake not only during weddings but also other occasions such as shower parties, prom night and the like. A simple look of a candle can be turned into an appealing and elegant decoration. Customize it by placing some enhancements for great effects. You may either opt to personalize it by scripting your names or adding a hang tag printed with your wedding date, venues and other personal message. You may find also different types of personalized wedding candles with different designs and colors. Consider Long Stem Rose Candles that can make a true icon of romance and love for the wedded couple. It is a very nice centerpiece decoration also doubled as keepsake for everyone. There are also themed candles that are perfect for the themed occasion.

Edible Favors

Another great way to delight the taste of your guests is by giving away edible treats. This is a very practical, good, inexpensive favor option. Edible items such as cookies, candies, chocolates and mints can all be used. You can either make your own or purchase at your local grocery market. Available edible treats are Chocolate Truffles Favors that are made with some of the finest ingredients from the chocolatier. Or, a refreshing flavor of Wedding Favor Mint Tins that comes with different colors and candy fillings.

These are just some of the great wedding party favors that are very popular and commonly used by most wedding traditions, and most of these items can make inexpensive wedding favors for any wedding budget preference.
