

Personalized Wedding Reception Accessories

Apart from the wedding ceremony, the wedding reception is another part of the wedding celebration where the wedded couple, guests and other participants are once again gathered to share tables with food and drink to further celebrate the togetherness of the newly proclaimed husband and wife. By this time, tables are filled with food menu and drinks. Also, accessories like place card holders, wedding favors and keepsakes are added to accentuate the overall appeal of the party.

With a traditional wedding reception, the wedding cake is always present. Although placing a cake stopper on the cake is not mandatory, most couple would prefer to have it anyway. This item is another great wedding cake accessory to enhance the look of the cake. Also, this is one of the keepsakes that most couples could preserve to commemorate their wedding event. Cake stoppers are typically presented in a form of ceramics where the couple are in their formal wedding outfit, and sometimes they present the kind of personalities a certain couple have.

Today, different types of cake stoppers are widely available both at local specialty stores and online stores. Available also are themed cake stoppers according to the wedding theme you prefer to have. You may find personalized wedding cake stoppers that can make great wedding cake accessories also. This item is personalized because it is formed or scripted with the couple's initials.

You may also want to consider a Monogram Letter Initial Cake Stopper to add a special touch to the top of your wedding cake. This item is made from lightweight silver tone topper that is perfect for smaller round tiered wedding cakes. For larger and rectangular shaped cakes, you may place more than one letter on the top tier. Or perhaps a Crystal Cake Topper to finish the elegant look of your wedding cake. This type of personalized topper has Swarovski Crystal monogram letters that can add a modernized accent on the top of your cake.

Other essentials or accessories during the reception party are the wedding napkins. These items add colors and accent on the table's centerpiece. And just like wedding favors and cake stoppers, there are different kinds of wedding napkin designs and styles you may choose from. Different colors and themes of napkins are also available to match the environment of your wedding. You may opt for customized wedding napkins as well, either make it personalized with your name or initials embossed on the fabric. So why not serve drinks to your guests with aplomb during cocktail hours with your personalized wedding napkins.

There are several wedding reception accessories that can be customized too. Such items are favors and keepsakes. Even essentials during the ceremony such as unity candles and the like. Personalized gift ideas for your bridesmaids, maid of honor, groomsmen and best man are also good too. Such items like engraved cufflinks can also make good wedding favors. Customizing is a great idea to come up with personalized items that can make a big difference to the overall appeal of your wedding.
