

Firstgear: Exclusive Line of Motocross Apparel For Men, Women and Kids

Firstgear has always been famous for its interesting motocross apparel and other equipment for riding. The latest collection of motorcycle jackets boasts interesting cuts and colors for an amazing and comfortable riding experience.

Motorcycle jackets

The exclusive range of motorcycle jackets from Firstgear is truly innovative. They have these motorcycle jackets for men and women alike. The men's collections of jackets are available in Denali, Earl, Heated and Kilimanjaro styles. They are available in a wide range of colors ranging from grey, black, yellow, orange, blue etc. The sizes of these motorcycle jackets range from small, large, medium to even extra large. Each of these jackets has a 500 denier nylon Hypertex coating on the outside and comes with water resistant elbow and shoulder pads. With longer jackets any motocross rider can now expect a greater degree of protection and comfort. The interior membranes are completely waterproof and offer 100% breathability inside. This ensures that each of these motorcycle jackets comes with a high degree of comfort and ventilation. The jackets also have a vertical exhaust vent on the back on the central side to facilitate the most air flow. The front pockets have waterproof and welded zippers to ensure long lasting comfort and protection. The women's line of motorcycle jackets is also equally fascinating with exciting color combinations and styles. The Allura, Babe and Betty jackets are most popular with all female motocross riders as are the Contour collections of motorcycle jackets. With cute color combinations like pink and grey, black, white, orange etc. women can flatter themselves with these high end jackets in style!
