

Memorabilia During Your Fall Wedding

Wedding favors are little remembrance or gifts given as the bride and groom's way of thanking their supporters for their presence during their big day. Also, favors are given to spread out the couple's warm gratitude to their participants, primarily to bridesmaids, groomsmen, parents and circle of friends who have been there throughout the celebration, from the pre-wedding preparation to the wedding day itself. However, wedding favors must be chosen according to your desired wedding theme, like fall wedding for instance. Incorporated during this wedding are favors that denote warmth and intimacy of a fall-themed wedding.

Just like other seasonal weddings, fall weddings also have different favors to choose from. Consider including on your favor's list homemade jams and wrapped jellies. You can make your personal label with your name, personal message of gratitude and other wedding information. The idea of giving edible favors are perfect to embrace such a beautiful wedding season.

Considering the wedding season, the favorable color scheme for autumn or fall are heavy hues of orange, yellow and red. A good choice of color scheme for fall weddings is important for they reflect the total look of the wedding. Colors and designs of favors should complement as well. Example, favors like gift boxes are usually designed with autumnal flowers and additional ribbons. Also, favor nets should be in red, peach, yellow, orange, brown, plum and gold or a mix of these colors. Fall wedding favors can be enhanced with warm colored leaves for a more rustic appeal and can also used as table decoration.

As with other fall wedding favors, you may consider decorative candles with leaf-shaped designs or silhouettes. Lighted candles during the wedding reception can add a romantic and intimate ambiance for the wedded couple as well as to the guests. Simple candles can be decorated with ribbons, placed in small bags with hanging tags. You can create your own candle favors by purchasing supplies from your local craft stores. Or perhaps, consider online shopping, online stores offer a different variety of pre-packaged candle favors with other extra services like free personalization.

Another option are coaster favors. This can make a fantastic thank you gift for your beloved relatives and friends who have witnessed your memorable wedding. Coaster favors are versatile and can be very stylish. Look for autumn-themed coaster favors that your guests can use all year long. Imagine how you have made your family and friends happy with your coaster favors at their table setting.

Lastly, you may try placing card holders as your wedding souvenir. Just like coaster favors, place card holders are versatile enough to make a dual purpose. Have them on your table during reception and give them away as a photo frame keepsake. Place card holders are used to display table numbers and guests name, but how cool they are to be also made as your wedding picture frame souvenir.

These are just a few fall wedding favors you may opt to choose. You may try researching for other wedding present and other wedding party favors for your autumn-themed shower party.
